As part of its application for admission, The Colburn School Conservatory of Music requires each applicant to provide two recommendations. One must be from the applicant's current or most recent instrumental teacher; the other must be from a musician who is acquainted with the applicant and who can provide an assessment of his/her abilities. Use of this form is optional. Recommenders may submit personal letters in place of this form, if so desired. Letters must be recent (written within the last year). Recommendations may be submitted by email, fax, regular or express mail. The School reserves the right to contact recommenders if follow-up verification or information is needed. All recommendations are for the exclusive use of the Admissions Committee, during the audition and application process only. Recommendations do not become part of the applicants' permanent files should they matriculate.

This form should be filled in, printed, signed, and then submitted directly to the Office of Admissions at The Colburn School.

RECOMMENDATIONS ARE DUE IN THE OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS BY DECEMBER 1.

Please state how long you have known the applicant, and in what capacity. As part of our admission process, it would help us evaluate this applicant if you can tell us about his/her background (musical, academic and personal), and about his/her personal strengths and weaknesses. If the space below is not large enough, you may write on a separate page and send it in with this form.

The Conservatory of Music at The Colburn School has an enrollment of less than 120 students, all performance majors. The atmosphere is intense and challenging. Please comment on the applicant's desire and ability for intensive work at Colburn. Include information about his/her approach to academic and musical study. If the space below is not large enough, you may write on a separate page and send it in with this form.

Please print this form, sign below, and mail or fax the form to Office of Admissions. (Address and fax number are at the top of this form.)
